

DISCLAIMER

The information provided on this website/page is only for information sake. Invest India does not in any form or manner endorse the information so provided on the website/page and strives to provide factual and unbiased information to users to assist in making informed choices.

Before relying on the information provided on this page, users should carefully evaluate the accuracy, completeness and relevance of the information for their specific purposes and use, carry out usual due diligence, and obtain professional advice appropriate for their circumstances.

Links to other websites are inserted for convenience and do not constitute endorsement of material on those websites or of any associated organisation or service. These external information sources should be assumed to be outside the control of Invest India and DPIIT for the purposes of any due diligence. It is thus the responsibility of users to ascertain whether the information on those websites is current, accurate, reliable and correct.

The names mentioned in this list are not exclusive or has not been verified by Invest India or Government of India and do not constitute endorsement of names in any manner. Any donations made by a company or individual should carefully evaluate the accuracy, completeness and relevance of the information for their specific purposes and use, carry out usual due diligence, and obtain professional advice appropriate for their circumstances before making donation of their money to the organisation or organisations.

This list has been compiled through primary and secondary research done by the our team In case the details of any organisation doing similar work in the field of COVID19 Relief Management is not found mentioned in the attached list please reach out to social.impact@investindia.org.in with details.